An Anthology of American Literature introduces students to various movements associated with literature, such as transcendentalism, realism, modernism and postmodernism. The book also helps students understand various trends in contemporary literature. The editors have taken utmost care to include various literary styles in the body of American literature that have been dominant throughout the ages while also acknowledging the counter narratives and styles.

Key features:

- A brief biographical sketch of authors to introduce their works and styles.
- A critical commentary to familiarise the students to the works
- An elaborate glossary
- Comprehension questions in tune with the new examination pattern of M G University
