A brief report on the programme

Deva Matha Club of Communicative English functions with the overt aim to develop the communication skills of students by encouraging them to give free expression to their ideas through various spoken English activities. The activities of this club are planned to augment the output of the members of the club and thereby imparting these values to the student community as a whole. The communication competence inherent in the students needs to be inebitably brought out to give flair to their overall personality. As a preliminary step, Mr. Jaison P.Jacob, the Convenor, and Mr. Kuzhivelil George Thomas, the Advisory Member, with the incessant assistance of Ms. Deepa Thomas, the Club Co-ordinator, enrolled 30 student members who possessed an inherent interest in spoken English activities in spite of belonging to varied disciplines. The first activity of Deva Matha Club of Communicative English was the organization of a lecture on the topic “Pronunciation of English alphabets”. It was held on September 12, 2017 in the omputer lab of the college after the regular hours. The class was taken by the Club Co-ordinator, Ms.Deepa Thomas. Amala Rose Benny of I DC Maths gave the welcome speech. All the student members were present for the lecture. The students got a better understanding of how to pronounce the 26 letters in English language. They also understood that there is no one to one correspondence between a sound and the letter it represents. Two student co-ordinators were selected- Dhanya Prince from III DC Physics and Tess Babu from III DC Botany. After inviting suggestions from the student members, the Convenor and the Advisory Member roughly drafted a plan of activities for the Club for the year 2017-18. Dhanya Prince proposed the vote of thanks.

A brief report on the programme

The second activity of Deva Matha Club of Communicative English was the organization of a lecture on the topic “Speech Sounds in English”. It was held on September 20, 2017 in the computer lab of the college before the regular hours. The class was taken by one of the faculty members in English, Ms. Nisha K. Thomas. Ben Babu of II DC Botany introduced the resource person to the group members. 28 students were present for the lecture. Ms. Nisha introduced the 44 speech sounds in English, their classification and their articulation. The class enabled the students to recognize the difference between letters and speech sounds. Tess Babu, one among the two student co-coordinators, proposed the vote of thanks.

A brief report on the programme

The fifth activity of Deva Matha Club of Communicative English was the organization of a lecture on the topic “Sentence Stress”. It was held on November 2, 2017 in the computer lab of the college during the fourth hour. The class was taken by one of the faculty members in English, Mr. Reneesh Thomas. Melvin Francis of III DC Economics introduced the resource person to the group members. 28 students were present for the lecture. The resource person introduced the concept of sentence stress and its difference from word stress. The class enabled the students to identify the types of words in a sentence that have to be stressed and those words which do not need stress and how the stress of the word changes with affixation. Dhanya Prince, one among the two student co-coordinators, proposed the vote of thanks.

A brief report on the programme

The sixth activity of Deva Matha Club of Communicative English was the organization of a lecture on the topic “Intonation”. It was held on November 8, 2017 in the computer lab of the college during the third hour. The class was taken by one of the faculty members in English, Dr. Sr. Fancy Paul. Ajo Joseph of I DC Maths introduced the resource person to the group members. 29 students were present for the lecture. Sr.Fancy introduced the concept of intonation and its importance in conveying the meaning of different kinds of utterances. The class enabled the students to identify the different types of tones and also to realize the various contexts in which falling tone and rising tone occur. Tess Babu, one among the two student co-coordinators, proposed the vote of thanks.

A brief report on the programme

The twelfth activity of Deva Matha Club of Communicative English was the organization of a lecture on the topic “Rhythm”. It was held on December 12, 2017 in the computer lab of the college after the class hours. The class was taken by the club co-ordinator, Deepa Thomas. Bini George of III DC Chemistry introduced the resource person to the group members. All the students were present for the lecture. The resource person taught that the time intervals between stressed syllables are roughly the same and this is called rhythm. The class enabled the students to understand that with the stressed syllables coming at regular intervals, the utterance has a rhythm. Dhanya Prince, one among the two student co-coordinators, proposed the vote of thanks.

A brief report on the programme

The fifteenth activity of Deva Matha Club of Communicative English was the organization of a lecture on the topic “Influence of Mother Tongue”. It was held on January 16, 2018 in the computer lab of the college after the college hours. The class was taken by one of the faculty members in English, Mr. Reneesh Thomas. Keerthana Babu of II DC Physics introduced the resource person to the group members. 29 students were present for the lecture. The resource person explained how our mother tongue influences our English speaking. The class enabled the students to understand the things needed for avoiding the interference of mother tongue on English when we speak. Tess Babu, one among the two student co-ordinators, proposed the vote of thanks.

The poster features a yellow header with the college logo and name. Below it, an orange banner identifies the club. The topic is highlighted in red text. A circular portrait of Mr. Reneesh Thomas is shown on the right, with the label 'Resource Person' written vertically. The date and time are listed in a light blue box, and the venue is in a dark orange box at the bottom.

A brief report on the programme

Deva Matha Club of Communicative English functions with the overt aim to develop the communication skills of students by encouraging them to give free expression to their ideas through various spoken English activities. The activities of this club are planned to augment the output of the members of the club and thereby imparting these values to the student community as a whole. The communication competence inherent in the students needs to be inebitably brought out to give flair to their overall personality. As a preliminary step, Mr. Jaison P.Jacob, the Convenor, and Mr. Kuzhivelil George Thomas, the Advisory Member, with the incessant assistance of Ms. Deepa Thomas, the Club Co-ordinator, enrolled 28 student members who possessed an inherent interest in spoken English activities in spite of belonging to varied disciplines. The first activity of Deva Matha Club of Communicative English was the organization of a lecture on the topic "Phonetics". It was held on August 6, 2018 in the computer lab of the college after the regular hours. The class was taken by one of the faculty members, Ms.Nisha K. Thomas. Agnus Paul of II DC Maths gave the welcome speech. All the student members were present for the lecture. The resource person introduced the branch of Phonetics and the importance of pronunciation in day to day life. The class enabled the students to understand the correct pronunciation of the 26 alphabets of the English language and the pronunciation of different words.Two student co-ordinators were selected- Swetha P.V from II DC English and Sachin S from III DC Malayalam. After inviting suggestions from the student members, the Convenor and the Advisory Member roughly drafted a plan of activities for the Club for the year 2018-19. Sachin S proposed the vote of thanks.

A brief report on the programme

The sixteenth activity of Deva Matha Club of Communicative English was the organization of a lecture on the topic “Linking /r/”. It was held on January 8, 2019 in the computer lab of the college during the fourth hour. The class was taken by the club co-ordinator, Ms. Deepa Thomas. Binuja V. of I DC Maths introduced the resource person to the group members. All the students were present for the lecture. The resource person introduced the concept of linking /r/ and its difference from intrusive /r/. The class enabled the students to understand how the pronunciation of the letter ‘r’ depends upon the context and the contexts in which ‘r’ remains silent. They also learned when to use linking /r/ in sentences. Swetha, one among the two student co-coordinators, proposed the vote of thanks.

A brief report on the programme

The twenty first activity of Deva Matha Club of Communicative English was the organization of a lecture on the topic “Contracted Forms”. It was held on February 12, 2019 in the computer lab of the college after the college hours. The class was taken by one of the faculty members in English, Ms. Jency Mary George. Gayathri Rajeev of II DC Maths introduced the resource person to the group members. All the students were present for the lecture. Ms. Jency introduced the topic of contracted forms of different grammatical words and their weak forms and strong forms. The class enabled the students to identify the different types of contracted forms in language and to understand how they make communication easy. Swetha, one among the two student co-coordinators, proposed the vote of thanks.

A brief report on the programme

The twenty second activity of Deva Matha Club of Communicative English was the organization of a lecture on the topic “Barriers to Listening”. It was held on February 28, 2019 in the computer lab of the college after the college hours. The class was taken by the Head of the Department of English, Dr. Jaison P. Jacob. Arya Surendran of II DC Malayalam introduced the resource person to the group members. All the students were present for the lecture. The resource person discussed the matters that pose a threat to listening of the students. The class enabled the students to understand the basic skills needed for academic listening and how can the barriers be cleared. Sachin, one among the two student co-coordinators, proposed the vote of thanks.

The poster features a central blue background with horizontal stripes in orange, yellow, and grey. At the top left is the college crest. The title 'DEVA MATHA COLLEGE KURAVILANGAD' is in bold brown letters. Below it, 'Deva Matha Club of Communicative English' is in white on an orange banner. A brief report on the programme

The twenty third activity of Deva Matha Club of Communicative English was the organization of a lecture on the topic “Sentence Stress”. It was held on March 1, 2019 in the computer lab of the college after the college hours. The class was taken by one of the faculty members in English, Ms. Nisha K. Thomas. Issac C. Thomas of II DC Commerce introduced the resource person to the group members. All the students were present for the lecture. The resource person introduced the concept of sentence stress and its difference from word stress. The class enabled the students to identify the types of words in a sentence that have to be stressed and those words which do not need stress and how the stress of the word changes with affixation. Swetha, one among the two student co-coordinators, proposed the vote of thanks.

A brief report on the programme

Deva Matha Club of Communicative English functions with the overt aim to develop the communication skills of students by encouraging them to give free expression to their ideas through various spoken English activities. The activities of this club are planned to augment the output of the members of the club and thereby imparting these values to the student community as a whole. The communication competence inherent in the students needs to be inhibitantly brought out to give flair to their overall personality. As a preliminary step, Mr. Jaison P.Jacob, the Convenor, and Ms. Deepa Thomas, the Club Co-ordinator, enrolled 30 student members who possessed an inherent interest in spoken English activities in spite of belonging to varied disciplines. The first activity of Deva Matha Club of Communicative English was the organization of a lecture on the topic "Mother Tongue Influence". It was held on August 5, 2019 in the computer lab of the college during the fourth hour. The class was taken by one of the faculty members, Mr. Reneesh Thomas. Angelin John of II DC Maths gave the welcome speech. All the student members were present for the lecture. Two student co-ordinators were selected- Bella Sunny from II DC Economics and Albert Dany from III DC English. After inviting suggestions from the student members, the Convenor and the Co-ordinator roughly drafted a plan of activities for the Club for the year 2019-20. Bella Sunny proposed the vote of thanks.

The poster features a yellow header with the college name and logo. Below it, a purple banner identifies the club. The main content is on a grey background, showing the resource person's photo and name, the topic, and the event details. A purple box at the bottom left contains the college's official seal.

A brief report on the programme

The ninth activity of Deva Matha Club of Communicative English was the organization of a lecture on the topic “Speaking Skills”. It was held on October 15, 2019 in the computer lab of the college after the regular hours. The class was taken by the club co-ordinator, Ms. Deepa Thomas. Aleena Roy of III DC English introduced the resource person to the group members. All the students were present for the lecture. The resource person introduced the topic of academic speaking and its significance in communication. The class enabled the students to identify the basic soft skills needed for fluent speaking in an audience and how this can be achieved through practice. Bella, one among the two student co-coordinators, proposed the vote of thanks.

A brief report on the programme

The tenth activity of Deva Matha Club of Communicative English was the organization of a lecture on the topic “Rhythm”. It was held on October 23, 2019 in the computer lab of the college after the regular hours. The class was taken by one of the faculty members in English, Ms. Nisha K. Thomas. Akhil T. S. of II DC Botany introduced the resource person to the group members. All the students were present for the lecture. The resource person taught that the time intervals between stressed syllables are roughly the same and this is called rhythm. The class enabled the students to understand that with the stressed syllables coming at regular intervals, the utterance has a rhythm. Albert, one among the two student co-coordinators, proposed the vote of thanks.

A brief report on the program

Deva Matha Club of Communicative English functions with the overt aim to develop the communication skills of students by encouraging them to give free expression to their ideas through various spoken English activities. The activities of this club are planned to augment the output of the members of the club and thereby imparting these values to the student community as a whole. The communication competence inherent in the students needs to be inhibitantly brought out to give flair to their overall personality. As a preliminary step, Mr. Jaison P.Jacob, the Convenor, and Ms. Deepa Thomas, the Club Co-ordinator, enrolled 30 student members who possessed an inherent interest in spoken English activities in spite of belonging to varied disciplines. The first activity of Deva Matha Club of Communicative English was the organization of a lecture on the topic "Mother Tongue influence". It was held on October 07, 2020 in the computer lab of the college during the third hour. The class was taken by one of the faculty members in English, Ms. Nisha K Thomas. All the student members were present for the lecture. Bijesh Biju of I DC Chemistry introduced the resource person to the group members. The resource person introduced the concept of Mother Tongue Influence on English. The class enabled the students to understand how our mother tongue interferes in our English speaking. Two student co-ordinators were selected- Stella Stalin from II DC Economics and Carolin Mathew from III DC Commerce. After inviting suggestions from the student members, the Convenor and the Co-ordinator roughly drafted a plan of activities for the Club for the year 2020-21. Stella Stalin proposed the vote of thanks.

The poster features a blue header with the college logo and name. Below it is a brown banner for the club. The main content is on a light blue background, showing a photo of Ms. Nisha K. Thomas, the topic 'MT Influence', and the date and time. A teal box at the bottom right contains the date and time. The footer has a purple bar with the college seal.

A brief report on the programme

The twelfth activity of Deva Matha Club of Communicative English was the organization of a lecture on the topic “Word Stress”. It was held on January 06, 2021 in the computer lab of the college after the regular hours. The class was taken by one of the faculty members in English, Ms. Nisha K Thomas. Amal Anto of II DC Chemistry introduced the resource person to the group members. All the members were present for the lecture. The resource person introduced the concept of word stress and its different rules. The class enabled the students to make out how to mark stress in a word and how the stress of the word changes with affixes. Carolin Mathew, one among the two student co-coordinators, proposed the vote of thanks.

A brief report on the programme

The thirteenth activity of Deva Matha Club of Communicative English was the organization of a lecture on the topic “Sentence Stress”. It was held on February 11, 2022, in the computer lab of the college during the fourth hour. The class was taken by one of the faculty members in English, Mr. Subin Varghese. Melvin G Babu of III DC Economics introduced the resource person to the group members. 29 students were present for the lecture. The resource person introduced the concept of sentence stress and its difference from word stress. The class enabled the students to identify the types of words in a sentence that have to be stressed and those words which do not need stress and how the stress of the word changes with affixation. Carolin Mathew, one among the two student co-coordinators, proposed the vote of thanks.

The poster features a dark blue header with the college logo and name: DEVA MATHA COLLEGE KURAVILANGAD. Below this, a dark blue banner reads Deva Matha Club of Communicative English. A brief report on the programme

The fifteenth activity of Deva Matha Club of Communicative English was the organization of a lecture on the topic “Word Stress”. It was held on February 23, 2021 in the computer lab of the college after the regular hours. The class was taken by one of the faculty members in English, Ms. Deepa Thomas. Lisbin Mathew of II DC Chemistry introduced the resource person to the group members. All the members were present for the lecture. The resource person introduced the concept of word stress and its different rules. The class enabled the students to make out how to mark stress in a word and how the stress of the word changes with affixes. Carolin Mathew, one among the two student co-coordinators, proposed the vote of thanks.

The poster features a blue header with the college name and logo. Below it, a yellow banner identifies the club. The topic 'Word Stress' is highlighted in a green box. A circular portrait of Mrs. Deepa Thomas is shown with the label 'Resource Person'. The date and time are listed in an orange box at the bottom. The college logo is repeated in a purple circle at the bottom left.

A brief report on the programme

The sixteenth activity of Deva Matha Club of Communicative English was the organization of a lecture on the topic “Sentence Stress”. It was held on February 28, 2022, in the computer lab of the college during the fourth hour. The class was taken by one of the faculty members in English, Ms. Jency Mary George. Melvin G Babu of III DC Economics introduced the resource person to the group members. 29 students were present for the lecture. The resource person introduced the concept of sentence stress and its difference from word stress. The class enabled the students to identify the types of words in a sentence that have to be stressed and those words which do not need stress and how the stress of the word changes with affixation. Carolin Mathew, one among the two student co-coordinators, proposed the vote of thanks.

A brief report on the programme

Deva Matha Club of Communicative English functions with the overt aim to develop the communication skills of students by encouraging them to give free expression to their ideas through various spoken English activities. The activities of this club are planned to augment the output of the members of the club and thereby imparting these values to the student community as a whole. The communication competence inherent in the students needs to be inebitably brought out to give flair to their overall personality. As a preliminary step, Mr. Jaison P.Jacob, the Convenor, and Ms. Deepa Thomas, the Club Co-ordinator, enrolled 30 student members who possessed an inherent interest in spoken English activities in spite of belonging to varied disciplines. The First activity of Deva Matha Club of Communicative English was the organization of a lecture on the topic "Speech Sounds in English". It was held on August 07, 2021 in the computer lab of the college before the regular hours. The class was taken by one of the faculty members in English, Ms. Jency Mary George. Alwin Varghese of II DC Botany introduced the resource person to the group members. 28 students were present for the lecture. Ms. Jency introduced the 44 speech sounds in English, their classification and their articulation. The class enabled the students to recognize the difference between letters and speech sounds. All the student members were present for the lecture. Two student co-ordinators were selected- Tresa Shaji from II DC Botany and Dhaya Mathew from III DC Chemistry. After inviting suggestions from the student members, the Convenor and the Co-ordinator roughly drafted a plan of activities for the Club for the year 2021-22. Dhaya Mathew proposed the vote of thanks.

A brief report on the programme

The eighteenth activity of Deva Matha Club of Communicative English was the organization of a lecture on the topic “Sentence Stress”. It was held on January 1, 2022, in the computer lab of the college during the fourth hour. The class was taken by one of the faculty members in English, Mr. Jaison Dawis. Melvin Thomas of III DC Economics introduced the resource person to the group members. 28 students were present for the lecture. The resource person introduced the concept of sentence stress and its difference from word stress. The class enabled the students to identify the types of words in a sentence that have to be stressed and those words which do not need stress and how the stress of the word changes with affixation. Dhaya Mathew, one among the two student co-coordinators, proposed the vote of thanks.

The poster features a blue header with the college logo and name. Below it, a dark blue banner contains the club's name. The main content is on a light blue background with a dark blue horizontal band for the topic and resource person. A green rounded rectangle provides the date, time, and venue. A circular portrait of the resource person is shown next to his name in a yellow box. The footer includes a circular purple stamp of the college.

A brief report on the program

The twenty fourth activity of Deva Matha Club of Communicative English was the organization of a lecture on the topic “Public Speaking”. It was held on March 03, 2022 in the computer lab of the college during the third hour. The class was taken by one of the faculty members in English, Ms. Sandra Lis Sebastian. Albin Thomas of I DC Chemistry introduced the resource person to the group members. 29 students were present for the lecture. The resource person introduced the concept of syllable and the importance of public speaking. The class enabled the students to identify the public speaking concepts. Dhaya Mathew, one among the two student co-coordinators, proposed the vote of thanks.
