Orientation for First Year UG Students 2021

AWAKENING

REPORT

The orientation Programme for First year UG students of academic year 2021 was conducted on 17th and 18th November 2021. The programme named Awakening, was held at the College auditorium from 9.30 AM to 3.30 PM on both the days. As the Covid protocol had to be followed, the programme was conducted splitting the students into two batches, following the same schedule for both the batches.

The Awakening programme had three main focus areas. Induction programme for newcomer students, Honouring the rank holders and Introduction to clubs and cells of the College. The programme started with prayer song followed by welcome speech by the Principal, Dr. Sunil C. Mathew. Thereafter College Manager, Rev. Dr. Augustine Kootiyaniyil delivered the benedictory address. Both the Principal and the Manager provided valuable insights to students regarding the values, mission and vision of the College and the way the College has been functioning since inception. They urged the students to behave with moral values, following the codes of conduct of the College. They inspired the students to dream, set goals, do hard work for attaining them and to work with dedication throughout their study period in the College. They motivated the students to partake effectively in curricular, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities of the College.

Rank holders of 2021 University examination were honoured during the function. Very. Rev Manager distributed the mementos to the rank holders. This was a moment of pride for the winners and inspired the fresher students. Through their reply speeches, the rank holders instilled enthusiasm among the first year students and reminded them the need for consistent hard work to reach academic excellence.

The formal inaugural function came to an end with the vote of thanks of College Bursar, Rev. Fr. Joyal Jacob Pandaraparambil.

First session of Awakening Orientation programme was on Nurturing a Refined Personality by Dr. Brincy Mathew, Assistant Professor, Department of Malayalam. Through her session, Dr. Brincy provided meaningful perceptions on issues confronted by student community today such as Gender Equality, Teenage Romance, Healthy Friendship, and Behavioural Etiquette & need for imbibing Respect for Elders. Students were benefitted through clarity on trivial aspects which will surely help them avoid unhealthy relationships and undesirable behaviours.

As part of the orientation programme, familiarization on various clubs and forums of the College was also done. Clubs and Cells of the College introduced their activities and functions to the students through their presentation. There were presentations by IQAC, NSS, NCC, Sports Academy, Arts Club, Oratory Club, Quiz Club, C&P Cell, WWS, SSP, YIP and Mentoring Cell during the morning session. In the afternoon, Women's Forum, ED Club, Yoga Club, Nature Club, Film Club & Anti- Narcotic Club made their presentations.

Second session was truly a need of the hour, on the topic "Cyber Security & Cyber Crime" by Mr. Arun Kumar K R, ASI, DYSP Office, Kottayam. His session was filled with real life experiences and examples which served as a real eye opener for the students. He threw light on the frauds and traps in the cyber world and cautioned the students on sensible usage of the social media. He also highlighted the need to stay away from drugs and alcohol. Arun Sir, through his vast and rich experience, and constructive discourse won the hearts and minds of students.

Awakening programme came to an end with the Concluding Remarks by Rev. Fr. Dinoy Mathew, Vice Principal of the College. The Coordinators of the programme were Fr. Dinoy Mathew, Ms. Anu P. Mathew & Mr. Jithin Joy, Assistant Professors, Department of Commerce and all technical support was rendered by Mr. Tanson Cyriac, Office Assistant.
